Registration is open for the MINEXCHANGE 2023 SME Annual Conference & Expo and CMA 125th National Western Mining Conference

The Society for Mining, Metallurgy & Exploration (SME) is pleased to announce that registration is open for the MINEXCHANGE 2023 SME Annual Conference & Expo and CMA 125th National Western Mining Conference. Held in Denver, CO, February 26-March 1, 2023, this is the premier conference dedicated to all disciplines of mining engineering.

With the theme “Investing in Success – Building Trust in Mining,” this year’s conference offers an expected 6,000 or more industry professionals from across the world access to a forum to share innovative ideas, best practices, and cutting-edge research.

“Our technical programs offer quality, innovative professional development unparalleled in the industry,” said David Kanagy, SME Executive Director and CEO. “Attendees expect a top-notch conference from SME and this year promises to deliver the best. We’re excited for February 2023.”

Featuring a wide variety of technical sessions and speakers combined with an expansive marketplace of exhibiting companies, MINEXCHANGE attracts thousands of mining professionals from around the world. This conference is a unique opportunity for attendees to gain valuable insights into supplying the minerals critical to powering a green economy with a focus on ESG, innovation, and health and safety. Attendees will find the insights, innovations, and connections needed to excel in mining and metallurgy today and into the future.
