

OVERVIEW AND ELIGIBILITY

The Mineral Economics Award is given to recognize distinguished contributions to the advancement of mineral economics.

There are no limitations regarding nationality or membership in the AIME Member Societies, but preference is given to members. If a committee member is nominated, they will follow any recusal (or other) procedures that their Member Society employs. The recipient must have been living when they were selected. Current AIME trustees are ineligible to receive AIME awards, except the Presidential Citation or if nominated and selected for another award prior to starting their AIME Board service.

The award was established by AIME in 1965 to recognize distinguished contributions to the advancement of mineral economics. In 2011, AIME transitioned this award to SME.
