

BEN F. DICKERSON III AWARD

Guidelines and Procedures

OVERVIEW AND ELIGIBILITY

The Ben F. Dickerson III Award (Dickerson Award) was instituted by the Mining and Exploration Division of SME in 1987, and is presented in recognition of professionalism and contributions to the mining industry.

Ben F. Dickerson III was a member of AIME from 1962 until his death in 1987. He served on the Board of Directors and was chair of the M&E Division. He will be remembered for his numerous "ROCK IN THE BOX" columns which he began writing in 1980, and also for the humor, wit and satire of his "News and Rumor from the Bush" articles featured in Skellings magazine.

He believed in professionalism and encouraged his employees to participate in professional societies in order to grow in their profession. Besides AIME, he was a member of SEG, GSA (Society of Geology Applied to Mineral Deposits), SIMM, AIPG, Colorado Mining Association, Northwest Mining Association, Mining Club of the Southwest, Mining Club of New York, and the Arizona Geological Society, to name just a few. He abhorred ignorance and apathy. His curiosity was boundless; he never stopped asking "Why?"

Although possible candidates may not possess all of these characteristics, the award should be presented to an individual who displays the honesty, integrity and sense of professionalism which Ben so highly regarded.
