

MMSA/SMEF Presidential Scholarship Guidelines and Procedures

Overview

The Mining and Metallurgical Society of America and the Society for Mining, Metallurgy, & Exploration Foundation offer one significant scholarship (MMSA/SMEF Presidential Scholarship) on an annual basis to an outstanding student whose study program encompasses any aspect of the extractive minerals industry.

The scholarship will be awarded to a student whose study program is directed toward:

- a. Mining or geological engineering.
- b. Metallurgy, metallurgical engineering, or chemical engineering as related to metal recovery.
- c. Mining or mineral exploration geology.
- d. Environmental science or engineering as related to mining activities.

The SME Foundation supports all efforts to recruit talented students for the minerals industry. MMSA is dedicated to promoting and improving the understanding and appreciation of the role played by mining and metallurgy in the United States.
